The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Price.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 329, entitled:

An Act to amend sections twenty-nine and thirty-one of the act, approved the sixteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 207), entitled "An act providing when, how, upon what property, and to what extent, liens shall be allowed for taxes and for municipal improvements, for the removal of nuisances, and for water rents or rates, sewer rates, and lighting rates; for the procedure upon claims filed therefor; the methods for preserving such liens and enforcing payment of such claims; the effect of judicial sales of the properties liened; the distribution of the proceeds of such sales. and the redemption of the property therefrom; for the lien and collection of certain taxes heretofore assessd, and of claims for municipal improvements made and nuisances removed, within six months before the passage of this act; and for the procedure on tax and municipal claims filed under other and prior acts of Assembly," by providing that under certain circumstances a municipality may purchase for the record, costs, subject to the lien of taxes and municipal claims, property sold to satisfy a judgment on a tax or municipal claim, and that a judicial sale on a tax or municipal claim shall discharge all mortgages, ground-rents and other charges on or estates in the land included in the lien, and repealing certain acts or parts of acts so far as they may be inconsistent with this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, there has been so much confusion in the House during the taking of this roll that I was going to suggest to the Speaker that we have another roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that it was the observation of the Chair that the members were voting.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, there was a great deal of confusion in this part of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will tarry until the Chair can ascertain the number of votes. The Chair is satisfied that a great many more than a constitutional majority voted against this bill.

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will tarry, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. If it is the desire of the gentleman from Philadelphia that another roll call be had, the Chair will be glad to order it.

Mr. BLUMBERG. May I make that request, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The Chair declares the roll null and void, and in this instance will order another roll call. The Chair does not want to seem to be unfair, but this will be the last recalling of the roll for the day.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, because of the confusion and because of—

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that the bill is not now under discussion. There is nothing before the House except a roll call.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, would it be possible with the consent of the House, to have explanation of this bill on the floor before the vote is taken?

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the calling of the roll.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, because of the importance of this measure, may I ask this House to grant unanimous consent to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, to explain the provisions of this bill? After that explanation, the members, of course, will vote as they deem fit. I believe that that courtesy ought to be extended to the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, that making that request he is destroying all precedent. The Chair has no alternative, however, if the gentleman obtains unanimous consent to see that the explanation be given.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, calls for the order of the day. The Clerk will call the roll.

Section 4 Effective Date During which Act shall Be in Effect This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor and shall remain in effect until the first Monday of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

Section 5 Inconsistent Provisions All act and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby superseded for the period during which this act shall be in effect

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the bill 1009, which is before you, is a bill which in a very feeble way attempts to fix the salaries of county superintendents and of their assistants. The bill on its face recites that it shall be a twenty per cent. reduction and that was the intent of the Committee on Education. We intended to provide a twenty per cent. reduction in the salaries of county superintendents and their assistants. The bill, as prepared, for some reason unknown to me or to the committee, is a bill to cut in the second year of biennium the salaries of the county superintendents and their assistants twenty per cent., which means a ten per cent. cut during the whole biennium. The reason for that change was that they are elected officers and the one drawing the bill evidently thought and probably thought that they could not be cut during their term of office, and he, therefore, cut them the last year of the biennum.

I want to say one other thing to the House before this bill goes along, and that is on page 3, lines 9 and 10, the words occur: "The Commonwealth shall not make any payments for such salaries other than those set forth in this section."

In want to be perfectly frank with the House. The county superintendents and their assistants receive much more money than the legislature provided that they should have. Under the law the school directors' associations have the right to give the county superintendents and their assistants a larger sum of money than the sum fixed by the legislature, which money comes out of the money that the State gives to the counties for schools. In other words, in addition to the salary we give to these county superintendents and which we give to their assistants, the county school directors' association not only has the right but does give the county superintendents and their assistants a certain sum of money, varying from four or five thousand dollars in Allegheny county for the county superintendents and two or three thousand dollars for their assistants down through the counties as their financial circumstances will admit.

This bill, in effect, cuts them really ten per cent. during the next biennium; and twenty per cent. in the second year. Therefore, it is a ten per cent. cut.

With regard to lines 9 and 10, in view of the fact that they receive their money from the school districts, other compensation above their salaries will be taken out of this bill in the Senate. In other words, we are not attempting to interfere with the higher brackets, which is wholly a matter for the county school directors' association.

This cut should be twenty per cent. instead of ten per cent.; it should be at least twenty per cent. I have some thought that it possibly will be amended in the Senate to make it a larger amount. The reason that I do not amend it now, I want to be frank with the House, I have been a week trying to get this bill in its place on the calendar where the members might work their will upon it. It has gained five numbers on the calendar since last Thursday. I am afraid to amend it and put it at the foot of the calendar again, because I think it would never come to light. For that reason I am asking the House to pass the bill.

The cut will be at least ten per cent. The Committee on Education decided on twenty. I am sure that when it goes over to the Senate it will be twenty per cent., the amount that the Committee on Education intended that it should be.

COMMUNICATION

The Speaker laid before the House a communication which was read by the Clerk as follows:

RESOLUTION

Be it resolved that the Tax Justice League of Tarentum Borough hereby endorses a Resolution adopted by the National Economy League, Western Pennsylvania Branch, in its address to the Governor and members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, reading as follows:

"You have promised the people to reduce State expenditures.

"The budget of the Federal Government is scheduled for a 25 per cent. reduction, and more than half of that objective has been obtained in one month.

"Almost four months of the Legislative session have elapsed but no real economy has been effected in the State Government. The savings so far discussed are entirely inadequate. The State payroll remains virtually untouched—although all Federal employes have been cut at least 15 per cent. and the average taxpayer engaged in private business or industry has faced very much more drastic reductions.

"The relief problem is now to the fore, and must be met. But it can and should be met without new tax burdens if economy is practiced instead of merely preached. The State and its officials cannot be exempted from the effects of the depression while an even greater load is placed on the public.

"We are all taxpayers, either through direct tax bills or through taxes necessarily added to the cost of food, rent, clothing and everything we buy. We have the right to expect you to subordinate politics in this emergency and take prompt and vigorous action to meet this situation."

Be it further resolved by the Tarentum Tax Justice League that it condemns the conduct of the Governor and those members of the House of Representatives and Senate who in their recent action used the relief appropriation for political football; and

Be it further resolved that the Secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this Resolution to the Governor of Pennsylvania and members of the Senate and House of Representatives from our Senatorial and Legislative Districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill that you have before you appears on today's calendar, page 44, House Bill No. 1232.

It is a bill relating to detectives and operatives and workers for detectives.

If this bill was enacted into law, it would make it impossible for any practicing lawyer to conduct any investigation in behalf of his clients. I never thonght that anybody could dream of the time of having operatives or detectives registered before they were sent out on a case. The bill provides that if you employ an investigator you must go to court, register his name and address and tell the world that he is working for you.

I have an idea what my friend, the gentleman from Berks, desires to accomplish, but this bill goes very far. I shall be very brief, but I just want to say a few words: "Any person who shall act as a detective or as an operative or employe of any person without first having obtained a license so to do." The term "detective" shall include all employes or operatives of such agency or of any individual engaged in such business, and he must be registered in court and an index kept of his name and his residence.

What lawyer who has an accident case could send an investigator out and get the facts? Every casualty company, every corporation that you happen to have a case against would know at once who your investigator was and you would get no results.

I ask you to vote this bill down.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia has described this bill rather inaccurately.

Those of you who have read the bill will find that its terms do not apply to persons who might be employed by a lawyer to make an investigation. They only apply to those who are in the business of detectives for hire or reward.

We have upon the statute books of this State a statute requiring that private detectives be licensed, but this law does not define the term "detective." The purpose of this act is to define the term "detective" and to see to it that certain persons who are now doing detective work for hire or reward for a detective agency be licensed and registered, so that we can tell who they are.

This bill was introduced at the request of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. Its purpose is to bring the labor spy out into the open. Maybe some of you are not acquainted with the genus homo labor spy. Labor spies are employes of certain detective agencies who make a business of stirring up trouble in industry. They go to an employer and show him or try to show him that by employing their operatives as workers in their factories they can have spies who will report back to them who are the agitators in that factory, who are suggesting union organizations or doing anything else that might be of interest to the employer. Then, in order to be sure that they have something to report, that same detective agency sends men in there to carry on agitation so that their operatives will have something to report.

It is a very fine racket. Many employers of this State are bled thousands of dollars a year by this scheme. If that were all they did you would not be quite so much interested, but they will go to the extent of inspiring workers to start some violent activity or other and then the men who started it back out and the workers are made the victims. If there is a strike near, if there is any advocacy of violence, it comes from one of these hired stool pigeons of the detective agency.

These men that are hired for this work very frequently are former convicts and gangsters and men of the type that would do any kind of work for money. Decent people would not think of doing such things.

The purpose of this bill is to require such operatives to get a license from the court of quarter sessions of the county in which they operate and have their names registered in a book in the court, so that you can tell who they are and what their purpose is.

I submit to you that this is a desirable and a laudable purpose. That is the purpose that the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor has in supporting this bill.

I may also say that the District Attorneys Association of Pennsylvania, at their recent meeting here in Harrisburg, endorsed this measure and wrote letters to all the members of the Lgislature urging them to support it.

With these few words, I ask you to support this measure and let us rid our State once and for all of labor spies.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. HOWARD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, will state his point of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the sponsor of this bill to explain the purport of it.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is quite an honor to be permitted to address this assemblage on the microphone. It has only been within the last few days that I have been able to address the members from the back seat.

Now, this bill is very short and I don't think it needs a great deal of explanation. I would like to give the boys and girls of Pennsylvania a chance to earn a scholarship. Anything that you earn, you know, is a great deal better than having it handed to you. It would be an inducement for better work in the schools. Therefore, I ask your favorable consideration of the bill.

Mr. WITKIN. Do you not believe that the members of either the Democratic or Republican party, particularly the Democratic party, have sufficient judgment to recommend a person for a scholarship.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Well, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would think, taking the membership of the Democratic party alone, my answer would be that they would have.

The SPEAKER. The Chair requests that the gentleman does not express his opinion as to the Republican party

Mr. WITKIN. Are you willing to amend the bill so that the members of Republican party are not permitted to recommend persons for scholarships, and that the members of the great Democratic party shall be?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Do you not have sufficient confidence in the Democratic party to permit them to make recommendations for scholarships?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would much prefer to have scholarships distributed through the Department of Public Instruction. You know that it is not right that the members of this House should be taxed so; you know they have plenty of work to do in legislating.

Mr. WITKIN. Are you not aware of the fact that if scholarships were distributed through the Department of Public Instruction, you would have to remove from the Department of Public Instruction any person who is connected with either political party.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Not that I am aware of.

Mr. WITKIN. Does your bill not say that they shall not hold any position in any political party? If any person in the Department of Public Instruction is a member of the Democratic party or of the Republican party——

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inquire whether the gentleman from Philadelphia is making a statement or an inquiry?

Mr. WITKIN. Is the gentleman in the Chair asking me a question? It appears that the sponsor of the bill explained the question, and I regret very much the Speaker does not.

The SPEAKER. The Chair accepts the apology of the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, it is not meant as an apology. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Brown, answer that question?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would think that the head of the Department of Public Instruction would be acting not as a Republican, but as the head of the Department of Public Instruction. You know I always think that when we fill these seats in the Legislature, that we are not acting as Democrats or Republicans, but as Assemblymen, and we should so act.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, does this "political party" include the Socialist party?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Oh, yes.

Mr. WITKIN. What is your opinion as to the capability of the Socialist party for recommending anybody for a scholarship?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, perhaps the gentleman undergoing interrogation is not in a position to answer that question.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, made an answer to the question, I have no further inquiry.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill before you is House Bill No. 223. It provides that in the granting of scholarships that they should be granted on a competitive basis. You have two principles involved in this. The question before you is as to which of the two principles you want to accept. The scholarships today, as a rule, reach the poor boys of the Commonwealth, but if you give the scholarships on a competitive basis, the poor boy who is lacking in education and opportunity will have little chance in competing, and only rich men's sons that are well able to pay for their education will receive the scholarships. I ask you to vote this bill down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REFUSED

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the hour is getting late and some of the members may leave. We have on the calendar, page 62, a very important bill, House Bill No. 2293, Senate Bill No. 1024. That bill provides for the creation of a convention for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, and I am going to ask the consent of the House to call that bill up out of turn, if it meets with everybody's approval.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent to calling up out of order House Bill No. 2293, Senate Bill No. 1024, on page 62, of today's calendar?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections and consent is not granted.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1253 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. SIMON asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1253, entitled "An act to amend article twenty of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled 'An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof, providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith' as amended by prescribing the powers and duties of the boards of trustees of State teachers colleges and the Cheyney Training School for Teachers repealing inconsistent legislation [and making an appropriation]," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. JONES

Mr. JONES asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, about a week ago there was a cartoon in one of the papers that I picked up showing the Speaker of the House, General Martin and Governor Pinchot as the three fiddlers.

I have been accused in the last week by a lot of my constituents as dancing to these three gentlemen fiddling, and I have only to say that my feet are getting flat. Most every paper that I picked up in the last week is saying that we are down here fooling around with the beer bill and losing ten thousand dollars a day. We passed a beer bill here last night and after listening to the oratory of the different members, I, like a number of others, was puzzled just what kind of a bill this was. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Quinn, said that it was awful; the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, said that it was terrible; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, said that it was wonderful. Now, I think that every fellow here has a real reason why he voted as he did last night. I will designate the three factions that are here, the Democrats and the two Republican factions. The Democrats we will say are the Guffeyites, the one Republican faction we will say are the Martinites and the other Republican faction the Pinchotites. The Guffeyites want the control in a commission, and honestly so. The Martinites want the control with the judges and I feel honestly so, the Pinchotites want it in either the Department of Revenue or the County Treasurer, and I believe honestly so.

Now, gentlemen, we have fiddled away, as the cartoon says, at least two weeks which has cost us at least ten thousand dollars a day.

Today as I was sitting back here visiting with my friend, Mr. Terry, the sponsor of the beer bill, Mr. Sowers gibes us by saying that I was the greatest friend the brewers have. I have been trying to convince the brewers in my district the last eight years that I was their warm friend, the warmest friend they had, but they won't believe me. I invite Mr. Sowers to come up to my district and tell them that I am their friend. The more I thought of that gibe today the more I felt that I was a slacker, so I journeyed over to the Legislative Reference Bureau and saw Mr. Fertig and asked him if there was not some way we could get this revenue until such time as we make up our mind what kind of a bill we are going to pass. It is true that we did pass one but I have before me an evening paper and I see in the paper that it says that Governor Pinchot is going to veto it. If the Governor vetoes that bill, which he says he will, then we are right where we started and it will be several weeks more before we get a beer bill through and it will cost us ten thousand dollars a day. Mr. Fertig says we can overcome that by a resolution and I am offering the following resolution and ask your permission to take action immediately on the resolution.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire that his remarks be spread on the Journal?

Mr. JONES. Absolutely, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

Will the House give its unanimous consent to the introduction of the resolution at this time? Are there objections?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objections and consent is not granted.

On the question,

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

Mr. HARVEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I believe, in speaking on this motion, it is out of order to argue the merits of the bill, so I simply say I hope the motion of the Senator from Luzerne will be voted down, for the simple reason that it is not a committee amendment. There is only one amendment to this bill, which exempts the judges of the courts; and the purpose of this present proposed amendment, as I understand, is to include other offices.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will confine himself to the motion.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for ten Senators voted in the affirmative and thirty in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the Chairman of the Committee on Elections, Mr. Howell, has shown me that inscription over the head of our President, which very few people can read, which says, "Speech is silver; silence is golden," I therefore have nothing to say except that the judges of the courts of record are exempted from the operation of this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the author of those amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Thompson, to explain the purport of these amendments. As I gather it from the reading of them from the desk it is to limit the publication, in the county seat, to the paper having the largest circulation. I think that would be bad legislation. I would like to have the reason for the amendments.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, the bill does not limit publication to the newspaper in the county seat having the largest circulation; it provides that if a newspaper in the county seat has the largest circulation in the county, that newspaper shall carry one publication. If the newspaper in the county seat does not have the largest circulation, then the sheriff shall have the option of publishing the notices of sheriff's sales in one of the three papers in the county having the largest circulation.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to have the Senator explain, and tell us, any reason for such a bill taking the discretion away from the sheriff.

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, it has, in many counties of this State, become, I might say, the custom for the sheriff to advertise entirely in the county seat, without having any reference to the newspapers published in large towns in other parts of the county. This bill compels the sheriff to publish in one newspaper near the location of the real estate which is to be sold.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, and also in one paper in the county seat, does it not?

Mr. THOMPSON. Mr. President, yes, that paper having the largest circulation. I might explain that the amendments I have offered here today are meant to clarify this bill. If the bill does not meet with the approval of the Senators, I shall be glad to refer it to committee and have it stay there,—if this clarification does not meet with the approval of the Senate.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, in order that this matter may be considered properly by the committee, I move that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

In the Senate, April 19, 1933.

On the fourteenth day of June, 1777, the Congress of the United States, by resolution, enacted that "the flag of the United States by thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, and that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Patriotic citizens and various organizations have for many years been observing that day as Flag Day, and by holding and fostering the holding of services at which love of flag and country were emphasized in addresses, have endeavored to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands.

A true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes is the basis of true patriotism without which the Nation cannot long endure.

The teaching to the youth of our country of the origin, development and meaning of the flag, of what it stands for and what it typifies is more important than any other teaching; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That this Legislature hereby suggests to the Superintendent of Commonwealth of Flag Day exercises on an appropriate day Public Instruction the holding in every public school in the in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction prepare and submit to the board of school directors of each school district within the Commonwealth an appropriate program best suited to the various grades with suggestions as to how such programs can best be rendered, with the idea of developing in each pupil a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes; and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires concurrent resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the immediate consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.
